Bienvenidos or Welcome to Santa Fe known as the City Different. Every city is different, so what is so special about Santa Fe? First, it has a history dating back over 400 years and the oldest continuously occupied government building in the country, The Palace of the Governors on the Plaza.

Santa Fe has a wonderful climate enjoying over 325 days of sunshine and an average daily humidity of under 20%. There is snow in the winter and endless blue skies all year round. The city sits nestled in the Santa Fe River Valley at the foot of the 12,500 ft. high Sangre de Cristo Mountains with skiing only 30 minutes from the center of town.

As the western terminal of the Santa Fe Trail, Santa Fe served as the first link between the indigenous Pueblo Indian culture that occupied the Rio Grande Valley, the Spanish culture that settled here in the 16th century and the expanding American population that pushed west, first on the trail and then on the railroad in the 1880s.

What really makes Santa Fe different is its unique sense of place. The beauty of the surrounding mountains, the intertwining of ancient cultures into a rich tapestry of colonial and west frontier history, the living connection between the present and the past, the peoples and the land all combined into a very special personal experience of this community at the heart of the “The Land of Enchantment.”

The walkable scale of the Plaza area is reflective of an earlier time. The many shops, galleries, and restaurants provide a rich variety of options. There are wonderful museums from Indian Arts to Folk Arts to Spanish Colonial Arts. Outside of Santa Fe, there are unending outdoor opportunities for the adventurous to explore, to hike, to bike, to ski or just sit and take in the surrounding countryside that has inspired generations of artists like Georgia O’Keeffe.
As the first designated UNESCO Creative City for craft and folk arts, Santa Fe attracts accolades from national magazines and organizations. Most recently, Condé Nast Traveler honored Santa Fe with one of the “Best Small Cities in America” award citing the city’s unique beauty, colorful culture, unrivaled art and architecture as key reasons for their decision. Santa Fe has been recognized over the years as one of the top destinations to visit in America and is a wonderful place to live, either to retire or raise a family. The small scale and intimacy of Santa Fe is unique for the wide range and depth of available cultural activities rivaling those offered in much larger metropolitan areas.

Furthering its uniqueness, Santa Fe boasts a tri-culture heritage in an unusual historic blend of Native America, Spanish and Anglo influences. This historical blend makes for a rewarding mix of these elements into everyday life. It is this cultural backdrop found in a thriving modern community where one finds a city that welcomes diversity, embraces both time-honored traditions and progressive thinking, while offering stellar live music, opera and culinary treats.

SANTA FE RIDE (PARA-TRANSIT SERVICE)
www.santafenm.gov/santa_fe_ride | (505) 473-4444

In addition to the fixed route service, the City of Santa Fe provides ADA complementary para-transit service. This is “origin to destination” transportation service for persons with disabilities who cannot use the regular bus service. It is primarily curb to curb service, but door to door service is provided upon request. This service is provided during the same days and hours of operation of the fixed route service.

Individuals who wish to be considered for this service will need to complete an application, have the information verified by a medical professional, and be certified by us as ADA para-transit eligible. The cost for this service is $2.00 for each one-way trip within the city limits.

The bus operator will assist an individual to get on or off the bus, but will not load or unload the individual’s personal belongings or carry-on items. If an individual needs assistance beyond this, he/she must be accompanied by a personal care attendant. Required personal care attendants ride free with the person they are assisting.

You may read the entire Santa Fe Ride policies and procedures by clicking here.

For cash and check, you may use the pre-pay envelopes that are available inside the major entrance door way and outside in the parking lot under the large parking instruction sign just before you get to the terminal.

Follow the instructions on the pre-pay envelope.
Insert your payment. Cash or check only.
Affix the white display copy to your windshield.
Drop your sealed payment envelope in one of two secure lock boxes near the blank envelopes. The secure lock boxes are bright yellow.

Frequently Asked Questions About Parking
What if I’m not sure how long I will need to park my car?
Pay for the least amount of days you think you will need to park your car at the airport. Call (505) 955-2900 or email us to let us know your car may be here longer than you’re pre-paying for. If your stay is longer than expected, you can pay the difference upon your return by using a debit or credit card at the pay and display machines or pulling an envelope and enclosing the extra amount and dropping into the secure lock box.

What if I pre-pay a certain amount and then my travel plans change?
If your car may be here longer than you pre-paid for, call (505) 955-2900 or email us to let us know. You can pay the difference when you return by using a debit or credit card at the pay and display machines or pulling an envelope and enclosing the extra amount and dropping into the secure lock box.

If your car is here for less time than you pre-paid for, call (505) 955-2900 or email us. They can refund the difference.

Is my car safe?
Parking at the Santa Fe Municipal Airport is at the owner’s risk and the airport assumes no responsibility for your car. Lock your car and do not leave valuables in it, especially in plain sight.

New Mexico Gas Company is the largest utility in the state. The company maintains 12,000 miles of natural gas pipeline to provide service to more than 513,000 residential, commercial and transportation customers.

To start or transfer natural gas service, contact New Mexico Gas Company Customer Service toll free at 888-NM-GAS-CO (888-664-2726). Call Center is open from 7:30 a.m. to 6 p.m. weekdays. Or, stop in at any New Mexico Gas Company Business Office during regular business hours. In Santa Fe, the business office is located at 1700-C St. Michaels Drive, Suite 110 87505, Walk-in Hours: Mon. — Fri. 8:30am - 4:30pm.

Service is scheduled on an as-available basis, so contact us as soon as you know you are moving so that we may schedule service for you. Call at least three days before you need the service to begin. Service appointments are usually all-day, but we may sometimes be able to make other arrangements.

A service technician will need access to your gas meter and, sometimes, may also need access inside the building. The building must be open and vacant with the meter accessible, or an adult at least 18 years of age may provide access to the premises. Other access arrangements may be able to be made through your customer service representative. Customers are asked to eliminate safety risks, such as a dog that may prevent safe access to the meter.

If your natural gas service has been interrupted for any reason and you would like to resume service, please contact Customer Service toll free at 888-NM-GAS-CO (888-664-2726) between 7:30 a.m. and 6 p.m. weekdays. Or, you may stop in at any New Mexico Gas Company Business Office during regular business hours.
To pay your bill:
New Mexico Gas Company
PO Box 173341 | Denver, CO 80217-3341

Customers may also choose the most convenient way to receive and pay bills at Manage My Account (www.nmgco.com/Bill Information.aspx). At Manage My Account you can:

- Sign up for Paperless Billing (www.nmgco.com/Paperless_Billing.aspx) and receive your bills online
- Pay your bills electronically or sign up for one of our payment programs
- View your current and past bills online and print out copies
- Access up to a one-year history of your bill payments and gas usage
- Sign up for Paperless Billing
- Request a letter of credit

New Mexico Gas Company customers are provided a bill each month, although the billing cycle usually overlaps two months (for example, November 15 through December 15). Customers have 20 days after the bill is issued to pay. After 30 days, unpaid amounts may be assessed a late payment fee.

PROGRAMS

Low-Income Energy Assistance Program
If you’re having trouble paying your heating bill, the Low-Income Home Energy Assistance Program (LIHEAP) may be able to help. LIHEAP is administered by the New Mexico Human Services Department and offers assistance with winter heating bills for income-qualifying New Mexico residents. Energy Efficiency Rebate Programs (www.nmgco.com/energy_efficiency.aspx) New Mexico Gas Company has four residential energy efficiency programs to help clients save energy and money.
Free Low Flow Showerhead Pack
All low flow products have a stainless steel finish. The package has a $38 retail value and could save you up to $150 on natural gas and 75,000 gallons of water over the life of the products. Quantities are limited and available on a first-come, first-served basis. Only residential customers who receive natural gas service from New Mexico Gas Company and have an active customer account number are eligible. Limit one per customer. The low flow pack will be delivered by U.S. mail to the billing address associated with your New Mexico Gas Company account.

Insulation Rebate
A rebate for 25% of the cost, up to $500, when you have a licensed and insured participating contractor add insulation to your home’s attic or roof. Insulation added between April 1, 2015 and March 31, 2016 is available for rebates with our 2015 program.

Water Heating Rebate
A rebate for $225 to $300 when you have a licensed and insured participating contractor install a high efficiency, ENERGY STAR certified tankless or condensing water heater with an Energy Factor (EF) of .90 or greater in your home. Qualifying water heaters installed between April 1, 2015 and March 31, 2016 are available for rebates with our 2015 program.

Space Heating Rebate
A rebate from $200 to $375 when you have a licensed and insured participating contractor install a high efficiency gas furnace or boiler with an annual fuel utilization efficiency (AFUE) rating of 92% or higher in your home. Qualifying furnaces or boilers installed between April 1, 2015 and March 31, 2016 are available for rebates with our 2015 program.
Residential curbside service is provided weekly using City-provided refuse containers. One 64- or 96-gallon container is provided to all residences. Residents place the containers at the curb and once a week the containers are emptied by an automated side-load refuse truck. WATER REBATES AND INCENTIVES
The City of Santa Fe Water Division offers a variety of rebates to encourage customers to conserve water by replacing high use fixtures and appliances with efficient technologies. Please note: This program is for the replacement of high water use fixtures and appliance with efficient technologies only. The rebates do not apply to purchases for new homes or new construction and development.

To Qualify
All appliances and fixtures must be purchased after May 1, 2011. Any applicant must be a City of Santa Fe Water customer with an account in his or her name at the service address where the appliance or fixture is installed and at time of purchase. Only original receipt(s) will be accepted. Applications submitted with photocopy receipt(s) will be denied.

Indoor Rebates Include
- High-efficiency clothes washer rebates
- High-efficiency toilet (HET) rebates for residential or commercial
- Water free urinal rebates

Outdoor Rebates Include
- Rainwater harvesting rebates
- Irrigation efficiency evaluation and equipment rebates

Complete rebate applications typically take 60-90 days to process. The rebate will be applied to the customer’s City of Santa Fe utility bill. To qualify, you must be a City of Santa Fe water utility customer and have an existing irrigation system and not a new installation.

Visit the Water Use Restrictions website learn when and how to water in order to conserve water and avoid water use violation fees.

Frequently Asked Questions

What should I do if I have a leak?
If your home has a water shut-off valve, turn the water off.

Who should I call about a leak?
If the leak is near the water meter, contact Customer Service and Utility Billing at (505) 955-4333. If the leak is in your home or elsewhere on your property, call a plumber.
How do I turn my water off when:

(1) I have a water emergency (if property damage will occur if water is not shut off immediately)? OR (2) I am doing planned plumbing work and need to verify a leak?

In either event, follow the instructions in the city’s Ordinance No. 2011-13 regarding responsibility for water service equipment. For customer service, please call (505) 955-4333.

AFFORDABLE HOUSING

Many of the affordable housing programs in the Santa Fe area have income eligibility requirements. Housing is typically considered “affordable” if a family pays no more than one-third of their monthly income for their housing costs, including rent and utilities or a mortgage, taxes, insurance and utilities.

Every year the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) established the Area Median Income (AMI) for every metropolitan jurisdiction and non-metropolitan county in the United States. The calculation considers estimates from the American Community Survey (ACS), Consumer Price Index (CPI), Inflation and Trend Factor, and a Margin of Error Factor. The AMI is also adjusted by family size – the bigger the family, the higher the income limit.

Provides 1,000 Housing Choice Vouchers (formerly Section 8.)

Owns 537 public housing rental units.

Owns 32 units funded under HUD Section 202 program which provides homes for the elderly, including many with extremely low incomes or significant health concerns.

Owns 100 Section 8-funded rentals.

Owns 23 market rate units (includes 2 units for police officers), all currently affordable

Own group homes for the disabled in Santa Fe and Las Vegas

Operates in Town of Bernalillo, Rio Rancho, Sandoval County, Mora County, Los Alamos County, City of Espanola and City of Santa Fe.
Provides up to $10,000 in zero percent interest, non-amortizing, deferred payment loans to low income homeowners in the unincorporated areas of the County for roof repair or replacement of roofs that have severe leaking and/or have significant structural defects. Provides technical assistance to the homeowner in performing roof inspections, preparation of scope of work for roof repair/replacement, solicitation and evaluation of bids from qualified contractors.

Provides “Down Payment Assistance” for first time homebuyers to purchase a home in the unincorporated areas of the County. Funds can be used for down payment and for closing costs. The assistance is a deferred payment, zero percent, non-amortizing loan. Available funding is up to $20,000 for households earning less than 65 percent of the AMI, $15,000 for those earning between 65 percent and 80 percent of the AMI, and up to $10,000 for those earning up to 100 percent of the AMI.

Administers an inclusionary zoning program that requires developers to provide up to fifteen percent of a development’s product as affordable rental or homeownership units at County-established maximum target housing prices. The difference between the unit’s appraised value and the maximum target housing price represents a subsidy loan which is secured by a note and mortgage held either by the County, or by a participating non-profit organization.

Administers a Foreclosure Prevention Program that assists households who had purchased a home through the County inclusionary zoning program by (a) working with households and lenders to assess refinancing options or loan modifications to lower monthly payments; (b) providing limited mortgage assistance if a temporary loss of income occurs due to a medical or employment issue; (c) facilitating the sale of the home to another income qualified buyer through a variety of means including assumption and write down, if necessary, of County subsidy loan and other financial assistance; d) acquiring homes to avert foreclosure and maintain the supply of affordable housing by reselling homes to income qualified buyers.

Works with Santa Fe County Housing Authority with the objective of creating additional affordable rental product within a mixed-income development.
Manages 199 public housing units and 241 Housing Choice Vouchers (previously called Section 8.)

Manages 35 HUD Veterans Affairs Supportive Housing Vouchers that combine rental assistance for homeless veterans with case management services provided by the Department of Veterans Affairs.

Provides rental assistance for 10 families participating in the Linkages Program to provide rental assistance for low-income individuals with serious mental illness.

Manages the rental assistance component of the Bridge Program funded by Life Link for individuals with serious mental illness.

Manages a Section 8 Homeownership Program in which a voucher subsidy is used to provide assistance to a first time homebuyer with mortgage payments, instead of with rent assistance.

Provides a Family Self-Sufficiency Program for existing public housing residents and Housing Choice Voucher participants. Funds are deposited into an escrow account for each family when there is an increase to the family’s earned income and, at the end of the contractual five year period, successful participants receive the balance in the escrow account; as of 2013 twenty-three participants were able to move on to home ownership with these funds.
Homewise is a non-profit organization dedicated to helping working New Mexicans become successful homeowners in order to achieve financial security, strengthen families and increase the economic and social vitality of communities where they provide services.

COUNTY OF SANTA FE OPEN SPACE AND TRAILS

ARROYO HONDO OPEN SPACE
The Arroyo Hondo Open Space consists of 87 acres north of the Arroyo Hondo, located approximately 7.5 miles south of downtown Santa Fe. Hiking trails from two trailheads provide access to panoramic view of the Galisteo Basin, Cerrillos Hills, Ortiz Mountains, and the Arroyo Hondo. The Arroyo Hondo Pueblo site and the historic dam can be seen from vista points. The property is open from dawn to dusk.

Parking Directions: www.santafecountynm.gov/userfiles/ArroyoHondoParkingDirections.pdf

BURRO LANE PARK
Burro Lane Park is located at the intersection of Burro Lane and Quail View Lane off of West Alameda near the Siler Bridge and roundabout in Santa Fe. Burro Lane Park was created to connect to the surrounding environment and provide a natural habitat for birds to forge, nest and live. The park’s walking trail, observation points, and shelters create opportunities to view and enjoy the birds as well as wildflowers, grasses, shrubs, and trees. The site has been graded to maximize passive water harvesting allowing plants to receive surface runoff. The park has picnic facilities, a trail loop, and a parking area with a school bus turnaround.

CERRILLOS HILLS STATE PARK
Cerrillos Hills State Park is located 15 miles south of Santa Fe on Highway 14 along the scenic Turquoise Trail in the Village of Cerrillos, New Mexico. The 1,098 acre parcel of land is owned by Santa Fe County and managed by New Mexico State Parks. Features include: hiking, mountain biking, and horseback riding on five miles of trails with breathtaking views of surrounding mountain ranges. The trailhead is equipped with restrooms, an informational kiosk, and horse trailer parking.

www.cerrilloshills.org/visit-the-park

EL CAMINO REAL PARK
The El Camino Real Park features a paved parking area for 20 cars at the trailhead, 0.9 miles of paved trail and two pedestrian bridges over the Santa Fe River. The project recreated meanders in the river channel, stabilized the river bed and banks, removed non-native vegetation and tons of trash and debris, and planted native cottonwood trees, willows, shrubs and grasses. Santa Fe County continues to work to restore the river using natural materials and native plants to stabilize the channel and enhance the riparian habitat.
RIO EN MEDIO OPEN SPACE
The Rio En Medio Open Space is located just past the village of Rio En Medio along State Road 592, approximately 6 miles northeast of the village of Tesuque. The property consists of 121 acres along Rio En Medio. The trail follows the stream for about a mile through mixed woodlands to connect with a Forest Service trail and ultimately with Forest Service Road 412 and Pacheco Canyon. Please Note: Parking at the trailhead is limited.

SAN YSIDRO RIVER PARK AND TRAIL
The trailhead and Parking for the River Trail is at the San Ysidro Crossing on the Santa Fe River. A trail connects the parking area to Agua Fria Park for 0.7 mile along the river. A River restoration project has been completed along this stretch of the river.

SANTA FE RIVER GREENWAY
This project is a joint effort between Santa Fe County and the City of Santa Fe to construct approximately 15 miles of a continuous greenway comprised of parks and trails along the Santa Fe River. It runs from downtown Santa Fe to the Wastewater Treatment Plant west of NM599. The County’s portion of the River Greenway is approximately 8 miles running from the City limits at Frenchy’s Field to the Wastewater Treatment Facility. The County is restoring the River using natural materials and native plants to stabilize the channel and enhance the riparian habitat. It is also constructing a multi-use trail for recreational and alternative transportation use.

SANTA FE RAILTRAIL
The Santa Fe Rail Trail follows the historic Atchinson, Topeka and Santa Fe Railway line from the City of Santa Fe to Lamy. The trail starts in the Railyard Park and continues along the train tracks to Highway 285 and then to Lamy for a total of 18.1 miles. The Santa Fe Southern Railway train conducts scenic tours from the Santa Fe Railyard Park to Lamy and runs along the County’s portion of the trail. The Rail Runner does not run along this portion of the trail. The portion under the management of Santa Fe County runs from the I-25 overpass near Rabbit Road south to Highway 285. The County’s portion of the trail approximately 12.5 miles.

CITY SENIOR SERVICES

The Division of Senior Services offers a variety of programs to senior citizens at five senior centers throughout the City of Santa Fe.

REGISTRATION

Anyone age 60 or over whom participates at any of our centers or utilizes the Division of Senior Services curriculum is asked to register with our program. We can secure program funding each time a registered senior prints his or her name on our various sign-in sheets e.g. meals, health screenings, fitness activities, transportation, in-home assistance, etc. Registration is held at the Mary Esther Gonzales Senior Center (MEG) located at 1121 Alto Street, Monday to Friday from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. When you register, a staff member will fill out a form with you, including your date of birth, the last four digits (only) of your Social Security number, an emergency contact name and phone number. Staff will also provide you with a photo membership card for $2.00 fee.

ELIGIBILITY FOR SENIOR SERVICES REGISTRATION

Participants must meet the following criteria, per the Older Americans Act:

- Be sixty (60) years of age; or
- Be the legal spouse of a member age 60 or over, residing at the same address; or
- For meals only, be disabled and living at Luisa, Pasatiempo, or Villa Consuelo (senior housing).

IAIA offers undergraduate degrees in Studio Arts, Cinematic Arts and Technology, Creative Writing, Museum Studies and Indigenous Liberal Studies, and graduate degrees in Creative Writing.

ST. JOHN’S COLLEGE

www.sjc.edu/about/campus-information/campus-information | (505) 984-6000
1160 Camino Cruz Blanca | Santa Fe, NM 87505-4599

St. John’s is a coeducational, liberal arts college. The college was founded in Annapolis, Maryland in 1696 as King William’s School and chartered in 1784 as St. John’s College. In 1937 it adopted a unified curriculum based on the study of great works in the humanities and sciences and premised on the belief that inquiry and discussion are at the heart of learning. A second campus dedicated to the same educational vision was opened in 1964 in Santa Fe, New Mexico. In 1967 the Santa Fe campus added the college’s first graduate program.

Degrees Awarded:
Undergraduate: B.A. (Bachelor of Arts) degree.
Graduate: M.A. degree — Master of Arts in Liberal Arts (both campuses) and Master of Arts in Eastern Classics (Santa Fe campus only).
Since 1983, Santa Fe Community College has served as the gateway to success for individuals and the community. The College provides affordable, high-quality educational programs that serve the social, cultural, technological and economic needs of Santa Fe’s diverse community. More than 15,000 students are served each year in its credit, noncredit and adult basic education programs. Offering more than 100 degree and certificate programs, SFCC caters to the academic, career and personal-enrichment needs of local residents, businesses, government and public service organizations.

Degrees and Certificates Awarded:
Santa Fe Community College offers more than 100 degree and certificate programs through the schools of Arts, Design and Media Arts; Business Education; Fitness Education; Health, Math and Sciences; Liberal Arts and Trades, Technology, Sustainability and Professional Studies.

The Santa Fe Higher Education Center (SFHEC) is a partnership among four universities and Santa Fe Community College. The partner universities are Institute of American Indian Arts (IAIA), New Mexico Highlands University (NMHU), New Mexico State University (NMSU) and University of New Mexico (UNM). The SFHEC is proud to offer over 20 different degree programs through the partners in the Santa Fe Higher Education Center. Each partner institution will admit students according to its own admission and registration policies.

Degrees Awarded:
The partner universities at the SFHEC offer courses leading to baccalaureate and graduate degrees including business administration, criminal justice, education, electronics and computer engineering technology, fine arts, museum studies, nursing, social work and studio arts.
Santa Fe University of Art and Design grew directly from New Mexico’s oldest chartered college, St. Michael’s College, which was founded in 1859 and granted a charter for higher education in 1874. St. Michael’s College changed its name to the College of Santa Fe in 1966, and enrolled its first female students in that same year. On August 30, 2010, the name of the college was changed to Santa Fe University of Art and Design. The new name reflected the mission and vision of the school while also recognizing and upholding the reputation of the college, students, alumni, faculty and staff.

Degrees Awarded:
Programs at the university combine practical experience with core theory, empowering students to develop a thorough understanding of their professional aspirations in contemporary music, creative writing, theatre, art, graphic design, film, photography, digital arts and arts management.
